

RAMP Energy Task Force

Modern Wood Heat Campaign

CURRENT WOOD HEAT INCENTIVES

Wood or Pellet Stoves

Offer	From		Eligibility	Website
Wood Stove Changeout Program: $1000 towards purchase of a pellet stove or $800 towards purchase of a wood stove when you turn in a non-EPA certified (pre-1988) wood stove.	Clean Energy Development Fund		Must turn in an old pre-1988 woodstove to qualify. New stoves must meet efficiency and emission levels.	www.erc-vt.org
		Or
$650 rebate on a new EPA certified wood stove or pellet stove, no old stove turn-in required, but there is an $100 extra rebate for change-outs.	Efficiency Vermont		New stoves must meet efficiency and emission levels	www.efficiencyvermont.com
		And
50% labor discount for woodstove change-out or a new installation	Chimney Sweep		Marshfield/Plainfield residents who purchase their wood or pellet stove at the Chimney Sweep.	www.chimneysweepshop.com/
		Or
15% discount on any wood or pellet stove. Customer must find a different participating installer to receive the CEDF or EVT rebates.	Montpelier Flag and Stove Works		Marshfield/ Plainfield residents who purchase their wood or pellet stove at Montpelier Flag and Stove Works.	www.stoveandflagworks.com
		And
$250 rebate to members for the purchase of a wood or pellet stove	Washington Electric Coop		WEC customers	www.washingtonelectric.coop

Centralized Heating Systems (Boilers or Furnaces)

Offer	From		Eligibility	Website
$3,000 rebate for automated wood pellet boilers or furnaces	Efficiency Vermont		All residential and commercial	www.efficiencyvermont.com
		And
$3,000 rebate for automated wood pellet boilers or furnaces	Clean Energy Development Fund		All residential and commercial	www.erc-vt.org
		And
$1,000 rebate for automated wood pellet boilers or $500 rebate for automated wood pellet furnaces for WEC members	Washington Electric Coop		WEC customers	www.washingtonelectric.coop

Brought to you by the RAMP Energy Task Force in collaboration with Efficiency Vermont and the Vermont Council on Rural Development